

Catherine's Gifts

by Jodie Boyle

Dear Vincent,

I could have bought you many presents this Christmas. Yet, they are only material things. You are worth and deserve so much more. So, this year, these are my gifts to you...

A candle to light your way

A hand to hold tightly

These arms to embrace you – in happiness, sorrow – anytime at all

A kiss...just because

My smiles because you always bring me joy. Just thinking of you...look, here I go again!

My ears so that you may always speak your heart to me and I shall listen

My heart that beats for you, and you alone

My love. Always. Forever.

With all that I am, I give you these gifts and more.

Merry Christmas, my love...

Catherine
