

"Let Me Teach You Tonight"

by Barb Alterman

Catherine singing to Vincent,
to the tune of "Teach Me Tonight"

Did you say you had a lot to learn?
Well, I'd like to make it my concern...
Your chamber is the perfect spot to learn,
So, let me teach you tonight!

Starting with the ABC's, a bit,
right down to the XYZ's, a bit,
Let us solve the mystery of it...
Let me teach you tonight.

The outside world is high above us...
Far from any disapproving gaze.
I'd like to show how much I love you,
In, ooooooh, so many ways!

Please allow me to come near, my love,
There is nothing more to fear, my love...
Gratification's almost here my love...
Let me reach you tonight...

I beseech you...let me teach you, tonight!!
